

ENVIRONMENTAL REVIEW for CATEGORICAL EXCLUSION DETERMINATION
Rocky Mountain Region, Western Area Power Administration

Badwater Substation Equipment and Containment Pond Upgrade
Fremont County, Wyoming

A. Brief Description of Proposal: Western Area Power Administration (Western) owns and operates the Badwater substation in Fremont County, Wyoming. Tri-State Generation and Transmission (Tri-State) , High Plains Power (HPP) and Western own equipment in this substation. Western is entering into a construction contract with Tri-State and HPP to replace certain equipment in the substation and to define ownership, operation and maintenance of the substation equipment. This contract includes removing Western's KV1A transformer and removal of HPP KV1B transformer from the substation, and the installation of two 150 MVA transformers with concrete foundations, two sets of 69-kV current transformers and associated ancillary equipment. As a result, the Tri-State will also enlarge the spill prevention containment pond located outside the substation perimeter, enlarge the turning radius on the existing access road entrance, and remove and reinstall portions of the fencing around the substation. Tri-State will perform the construction. Western is responsible for construction supervision.

B. Number and Title of the Categorical Exclusion Being Applied: (See text in 10 CFR Part 1021, Subpart D.)

Additions or modifications to electrical power transmission facilities that would not affect the environment beyond the previously developed facility area including, but not limited to switchyard rock grounding upgrades, secondary containment projects, paving projects, seismic upgrading, tower modifications, changing insulators and replacement of poles, circuit breakers, conductors, transformers and crossarms.

C. Regulatory Requirements in 10 CFR 1021.410 (b): (See full text in regulation and attached checklist.)

- 1) The proposed action fits within a class of actions that is listed in Appendix A or B to Subpart D.

For classes of actions listed in Appendix B, the following conditions are integral elements; i.e., to fit within a class, the proposal must not:

- Require siting, construction, or major expansion of waste storage, disposal, recover, or treatment facilities, but may include such categorically excluded facilities;
- Disturb hazardous substances, pollutants, contaminants, or CERCLA-excluded petroleum and natural gas products that pre-exist in the environment such that there would be uncontrolled or unpermitted releases; or

- Adversely affect environmentally sensitive resources (including but not limited to those listed in paragraph B. (4)).<sup>1</sup>
- 2) There are no extraordinary circumstances related to the proposal that may affect the significance of the environmental effects of the proposal; and
  - 3) The proposal is not “connected” to other actions with potentially significant impacts, is not related to other proposed actions with cumulatively significant impacts, and is not precluded by 40 CFR 1506.1 or 10 CFR 1021.211.

D. Special Stipulations Pertaining to the Proposal:

If the scope of work of this project changes you must contact Western’s Environmental Division for additional environmental review.

If any cultural materials are discovered during construction, work in the area shall halt immediately, Western and the Wyoming SHPO staff shall be contacted, and the material be evaluated by an archaeologist or historian meeting the Secretary of the Interior’s Professional Qualification Standards (48 FR 22716, Sept. 1983).

This Categorical Exclusion is valid for 3 years after the signature date. If construction has not commenced within that time, contact Western’s Environmental Division for an updated environmental review prior to construction.

Western will implement standard best management practices for erosion, seeding, and noxious weed control.

There will be no work or ground disturbance within 50 feet of the riparian zone east of the substation.

E. Determination: Based on my review of information provided to me and in my possession concerning the proposed action, I determined that the proposed action fits within the specified class of actions, the other regulatory requirements set forth above are met, and the proposed action is categorically excluded from requirements for an EA or an EIS.
