Dear Ms. Wolfe:

This letter notifies Western Area Power Administration (Western) of the Aid to Irrigation for accumulated irrigation construction costs subject to relief due to ability-to-pay studies. The total amount of Aid to Irrigation is $67,658,087, which reflects Cumulative Construction Relief for the period of FY92 through FY24, and includes a net increase of $698,767 in FY24, as identified in the 2026 Irrigation Water Ratebook (Schedule A-2B1). Of this total, WAPA has paid $66,959,320. This information is provided in total to meet the needs of Western's Central Valley Project Power Repayment Study.
